

I'm against any thing the government is trying to do to limit what XM radio can broadcast. I pay for the service, I should have the right to the latest technologies out there.